Mr. Richard Meredith-Hardy

September 3, 2010

CIMA President

Dear Sir,

On behalf of the Aero Club of Poland, I am submitting a kind request to you to put forward a motion to be considered during this year CIMA conference in Lausanne; the subject matter of the said motion being the application of CIMA to FAI concerning awarding Mr. Alojzy Dernbach with the Colibri Diploma.

Our application has been submitted to CIMA in 2009. CIMA General Conference in Lausanne, November 2009, decided to accept nomination for a Posthumous Colibri Diploma Award to Etsushi Matsuo.

Delegates on CIMA Conference in Lausanne, November 2010, are kindly requested to consider and accept our application again.

Mr Alojzy Dernbach with the Colibri Diploma

JUSTIFICATION

Alojzy Dernbach became active in the early seventies, while still a student of the Department of Aviation, Technical University in Warsaw and at the time when hang gliding was becoming a new aviator discipline in Poland. He was among pioneers of powered hang gliding, aircrafts being an equivalent of the present PHG category. He was also a co-founder of an experimental and manufacturing laboratory "Kompol" affiliated to the Warsaw Technical University. The laboratory was active in designing and manufacturing wings for hang gliders and trikes, propellers for power units and composite elements of aviatory constructions.

At present, Kompol, for which Mr. Alojzy Dernbach is a manager and test pilot, is a privately owned company and a leading Polish manufacturer of complete trikes "Stratus", as well as components of UL aeroplanes and gyrocopters. Kompol also organizes professional training courses for pilots - the company has been instrumental in training leading Polish competitors, members of the Aero Club of Poland Selected Team, medal winners at Polish, European and World contests.

Mr. Alojzy Dernbach for many years is a winner of Polish Nationals in category RAL1. As a member of Polish Team on FAI World and European Microlight Championships he won bronze medal on WMC 2007 in Usti, CzR, silver medal on WMC 1999 in Matkapusta, Hungary and World Air Games 2001 Beas de Segura, Spain, gold medal on WMC 2005 in Levroux, France.

At present Mr Alojzy Dernbach is a World Champion in RAL1, winning gold medal on WMC 2009 in Jihlava, CzR.
